

Crowds flock to see the Lincolnshire FSB Marketplace at Lincolnshire Show 2011

Overcast skies and heavy rain showers failed to dampen spirits at the 127th Lincolnshire Show!

The organisers have claimed a record attendance of over 65,000 and that was certainly borne out by the tremendous number of visitors who came through the Lincolnshire FSB Marketplace.

The 24 FSB Lincolnshire Region members exhibiting in the FSB Marketplace pronounced themselves more than satisfied, even though showers spoil attendances during both afternoons.

The Federation of Small Businesses exhibit at the 127th Lincolnshire Show was a Mecca for VIPs from Lincolnshire.

The Queen's local representative, Mr Tony Worth, the Lord Lieutenant of Lincolnshire, was a very welcome visitor and is shown with David Dexter, FSB Lincolnshire Region Chairman and Sandra Dexter, FSB National Vice Chairman and Lincolnshire Region Secretary and one of the FSB organisers of the Lincolnshire FSB Marketplace.

Martin Hill, OBE, Leader of Lincolnshire County Council met FSB Lincolnshire Region Chairman, David Dexter and FSB Lincolnshire Vice Chairman and National Councillor, Rod Handford.

Sandra Dexter, National Vice Chairman of the FSB, bravely donned a sandwich board to help promote the many attractions of the Lincolnshire FSB Marketplace and of the 24 of our Lincolnshire members who were exhibiting their businesses inside the marquee.

Martin Vickers, MP, and his wife were also very welcome visitors to the Lincolnshire FSB Marketplace at Lincolnshire Show.

A pictorial album of the FSB at Lincolnshire Show

The 804th Mayor of the City of Lincoln and the High Sherriff of Lincolnshire, together with their Consorts, toured the Lincolnshire FSB Marketplace meeting our exhibitors.

FSB National Chairman, John Walker, and FSB North Lincolnshire & West Lindsey Branch Chairman, Neil Poole, enjoyed meeting our exhibitors.

Olivia of Gainsborough showed beautiful dresses which were widely admired.

Originality was a feature of many of the FSB exhibitors, as these blinds printed with a photo of Lincoln Cathedral demonstrates so well.

Within the hospitality marquee, FSB recruiters met and signed up as members many local businesspeople who were attending the Show.

Paladin Radiators showed a beautiful range of unique cast iron engraved radiators. Classic designs bought right up to date.

Capture Photography were taking free portraits of children and pets through both days.

The Lincolnshire FSB Marketplace enjoyed strong attendances on both days of the Show.

A great couple of days for the FSB businesses!

Visitors came and shopped, enjoying the tremendous range of products and services available.

FSB Members exhibiting in the Lincolnshire FSB Marketplace were: A Torn Construction; All-Craft; Annikas; Beetlebum by Design; Capture Photography; CCTV Security; Clifford Electrics; Forever Living; Grid To Mag; IFA Professional Planning; Lindsey James; Olivia of Gainsborough; Paladin Radiators; Positive Impact Coaching; Primetime Video; Soft Options; Spence Accounting; Stax Engineering; The Grange Spa; The Natural Dog Food Co; The Wine & Glass Company; Utility Warehouse; Water Babies; WII-Lec Electrical

