FREE EVENT

- Are you worried about the effect of crime on your business?
- Would you like to know what measures you can take to prevent crime within your business?

The Federation of Small Businesses, in association with Devon and Cornwall Constabulary is hosting a crime prevention and security event so that you can find ways to protect your business and tell us what issues are affecting you. What would you like done about it?

The event will be presented by Mike Cherry, FSB Home Affairs Policy Chairman, with representatives from Devon and Cornwall Constabulary, including Local Community and Senior Police Officers.

This event is FREE but booking is essential
